B. Synodical Deputies

- 1) Classis shall by election nominate one of its ministers in regular service to function as Synodical Deputy according to the specifications for this duty as laid down by the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church.
 - a) They shall be elected to a three-year term at the appropriate meeting of Classis and to assume their duties with the approval of Synod.
 - b) An alternate shall also be elected to serve in place of the regular deputy if necessary, and to fill out their unexpired term in case this task must be relinquished.
- 2) Since this function is denominational in character, report of work performed is not made to Classis but to Synod. Said Stated Clerk forwards one copy of the report to the CRCNA Synodical Services Office.

- 5) When an alternate delegate assumes the office of the incumbent they shall fulfill the remainder of the term of the former incumbent.

VIII. The Special Functions of Classis

A. Examination of Candidates

- 1) As soon as a candidate has accepted the call of one of the churches of Classis, the Council shall notify the Stated Clerk, requesting an examination.
- 2) The Classical Interim Committee shall make all necessary arrangements in accordance with Synodical and Classical regulations.
- 3) Credentials Required by Classis. Synod advises "the classes, with reference to the credentials required by classes, that synod's declaration of candidacy may be taken to certify that the candidates have met the academic requirements for candidacy, have been found in good health, and have been recommended by a consistory. No further inquiry into these matters need ordinarily be made by a Classis at the examination for ordination" (Acts of Synod 1978, p. 24).
- 4) Sermon Evaluation
 - a) The candidate is to prepare a sermon on a text assigned by Classis. A copy of this sermon is to be submitted to the sermon evaluators two weeks before the examination. The sermon evaluators shall discuss the sermon with the candidate prior to the examination in the other branches.
 - b) The candidate should preach this sermon on the text assigned by Classis in an official worship service in the presence of classical representatives, preferably on the Sunday preceding the meeting of Classis in the church to which they have been called.
 - c) In addition to the required sermon on an assigned text, the candidate shall submit to each of the sermon evaluators of Classis copies of two other sermons which they have preached as a student, one based on a Scripture text and the other on a Lord's Day of the Heidelberg Catechism. The combination of Scripture texts should include both the Old Testament and the New Testament.
 - d) A copy of the candidate's sermons must be provided to the synodical deputies and to the delegates to Classis. It is strongly recommended that the sermons be forwarded to the Stated Clerk in electronic format for distribution.
 - e) The sermon evaluators shall report to Classis at the appropriate point in the examination of the candidate.
 - f) Four classical delegates should be appointed as the official examiners, two to function as sermon evaluators and to be present at the worship service in which the sermon on the assigned text is being preached, and two to conduct the actual examination at the time Classis meets.
- 5) Classical Examination
 - a) A classical examiner shall introduce the candidate to the Classis.
 - b) The examination proper shall consist of inquiry into three main areas, as follows:
 - (1) PRACTICA (no time limit)
 - i The classical examiner shall inquire into the candidate's relationship to God and their commitment to the ministry, their understanding of the meaning and relevance of the ministry for our times, their loyalty to the church, and related matters.
 - ii The synodical deputies and delegates shall have opportunity to ask additional questions.
 - iii Before proceeding to the next area of inquiry, a motion to proceed shall carry with the concurrence of the synodical deputies.
 - (2) SERMON EVALUATION
 - i In the presence of the candidate, the written sermon shall be evaluated, and attention shall be given to their manner of conducting a worship service.
 - ii Additional questions with reference to the sermon and its delivery shall be allowed.
 - iii Before proceeding to the next area, a motion to proceed shall carry with the concurrence of the synodical deputies.

- (3) BIBLICAL AND THEOLOGICAL POSITION (minimum, 30 minutes per candidate)
 - i The examiner shall inquire into the candidate's biblical and theological judgment, competence, and soundness.
 - ii Opportunity shall be provided for additional questions.
- 6) Procedure for admitting to the ministry
 - a) After the examination, a motion to admit shall be received, after which the chair shall declare executive session.
 - b) The motion shall be given preliminary consideration in executive session
 - c) After this consideration, and prior to voting, prayer for the guidance of the Holy Spirit shall be offered.
 - d) The synodical deputies shall leave the floor to prepare their recommendation.
 - e) Classis shall vote by ballot.
 - f) The synodical deputies shall offer their written statement, from which it will become evident whether or not they can concur with the decision of Classis.
 - g) In the event they do not concur, the Classis and the synodical deputies may try to reach a unified decision. In the event that agreement cannot be reached between them, the matter is automatically referred to the synod for final adjudication.
 - h) If the motion for admittance is not sustained, the chair shall inform the candidate privately, along with the deficiencies noted by Classis. (See A. 8) below.)
 - i) If the motion for admittance is sustained, the chairperson shall inform the candidate of their admittance to the ministry in the Christian Reformed Church. The candidate shall be requested to sign the Covenant for Officebearers, upon which, the chairperson, with appropriate remarks, shall present the Classical Diploma and opportunity to congratulate the candidate shall be given. The chairperson shall authorize the counselor to proceed with the ordination of the candidate.
- 7) The Stated Clerk shall send a copy of these rules to the candidate to be examined.
- 8) Re-examination of a Candidate.
 - a) If a candidate does not pass the examination, they may be given another opportunity at the following classical meeting to be examined in the areas in which they failed.
 - b) The Classis and synodical deputies may recommend a re-examination and specify its nature. Since an examination is conducted at the request of the calling council, and the call of a candidate is tentative and provisional upon the passing of the examination, the council must officially request a re-examination.
 - c) If a candidate fails to pass their re-examination or the council extending the call does not request a re-examination, the call is considered withdrawn.
 - d) A candidate whose case has been appealed to synod may not be called by another church nor examined by another classis.
- 9) Pastors will not be called upon to examine a candidate in violation of their conscience.
- 10) In the event of the examination of a female candidate, the delegates from the churches who have registered their protest to the seating of female delegates shall be given the option no to participate in the examination of this candidate. The examination and vote will be conducted by the remaining delegates.

A written specification of the need will be a part of the report of the synodical deputies.

- 9) At the scheduled colloquium doctum, the applicant or nominee shall present a testimonial from their council or Classis or presbytery concerning their purity of doctrine and sanctity of life. (It is conceivable that just because the applicant is loyal to the Word and the creeds they are adjudged persona non grata by their own ecclesiastical assemblies and that they would not be granted such a testimonial. Should such be the case, a careful preliminary investigation must be made by the classis in consultation with the synodical deputies. The report of this investigation, if satisfactory to the classis and synodical deputies, will serve under such circumstances in lieu of the testimonial.)
 - a) The arrangements for a colloquium doctum shall be made by the Classical Interim Committee in accordance with Synodical regulations, including the appointment of a minister of Classis to serve as interviewer.

 - b. The motion is debatable, may be amended, and requires only majority for passing.
5. Object to consideration

A delegate may rise to state an objection to considering a proposed matter. The chair shall immediately either sustain or overrule the objection, stating the reason for so deciding. The objector, if not satisfied, may appeal the ruling of Classis. The objection then becomes debatable, and requires a two-thirds vote to be sustained.

D. Motions to Suppress Debate or Hasten Action

1. Call for the question
 - a. This motion may be moved to terminate discussion of any debatable motion by calling for an immediate vote. If adopted by majority vote. The main motion must be voted on without debate. If rejected, debate continues.
 - b. The motion may not be amended, is not debatable, and requires only a majority for passing.

2. Suspend rules

 - b. The motion may not be amended, is not debatable, and requires a two-thirds majority for passing.
 3. Limit debate
 - a. This motion proposes to restrict the time available for debate on a specific motion or subject, and requires the chair to call for a vote at the specified time.
 - b. The motion is amendable but is not debatable. A majority vote is required for passing.
 4. Make special order of business
 - a. This motion would direct the chair to interrupt pending business at a specified time in order to consider the special matter proposed.
 - b. This motion is amendable, may be debated, and requires only a majority vote for passing.
- E. Motions Regarding Actions Once Taken
1. Motion to reconsider

The intent of this motion is to propose a new debate and vote on the question once passed. Any member of Classis, for weighty reasons, may request reconsideration of a matter once decided.

 - a. The motion must be made at the same session at which the decision was made.
 - b. It is debatable only in so far as the reasons for reconsideration are concerned, and requires a majority vote for passing.
 - c. The following may not be reconsidered:
 - 1) to adjourn or recess
 - 2) to table
 - 3) any decision once reconsidered
 - 4) to make or close nominations
 - 5) to suspend rules
 - 6) to take from the table
 - 7) to take a question out of its proper order
 - 8) to postpone indefinitely
 - d. A motion to reconsider may be postponed to a definite time or tabled, but may not be amended, postponed indefinitely, or referred to a committee.
 2. Motion to rescind
 - a. For weighty reasons, a delegate may move to rescind a previous decision taken at the same meeting of Classis, but only if they voted on the prevailing side when the original decision was taken.
 - b. Classis shall not rescind the actions of a previous meeting unless weighty reasons are adduced for rescinding and it be overtured to do so.
 - c. A motion to rescind is debatable, not only so far as the reasons for rescinding are concerned, but also as to the merits of the original question.
 - d. All motions to rescind require a two-thirds majority.
- F. Privileged Motions
1. To adjourn
 - a. Classis normally does not adjourn until all matters legally upon the table have been acted upon.
 - b. This motion has precedence over all other motions, is not debatable or amendable, and requires a majority vote for passing.
 2. To recess
 - a. Scheduled recesses are adopted when the Agenda is proposed for adoption. Non-scheduled recesses may be proposed, in which case the motion shall specify time and duration.
 - b. The motion is debatable and amendable only in reference to time and duration of recess, and shall be passed by a majority vote.
 3. Order of the day
 - a. When any member of Classis feels that the regular business of Classis is being obstructed or interrupted by irrelevant material, they have the right to rise and call for the order of the day. This means that they desire Classis to return to the regular course of business.
 - b. This call may be made without recognition and when another member is speaking.
 - c. The call is not debatable, needs no second, and must be put to vote. A majority is necessary for passing.
 - d. It has precedence over every other motion except to recess or adjourn.
 4. Point of order
 - a. Should a member believe that the rules have been misinterpreted or misapplied, they may rise stating that they wish to make a point of order. Asked by the chair to state their point, they do so, and the chair renders a decision at once on the point in question.
 - b. A point of order may be raised at any time and must be recognized by the chair. A call to a point of order may be made without recognition and while another member is speaking.
 - c. It needs no second and is not debatable.
 - d. In case the maker of the point of order is not satisfied with the decision of the chair, they may appeal to the floor. When this is done, the point of order becomes non-debatable and a simple majority is sufficient to sustain or overthrow the chair's decision.

5. Call for division of the question
At the request of any member of Classis a motion consisting of several parts must be divided into its component parts and each part must be voted on separately.

G. Debate

1. A delegate who wishes to speak in discussion of a matter must await recognition by the chair, and when so recognized shall address their remarks to the chair and never to any member of Classis.
2. A speaker may be interrupted by a call to order by the chair or by a privileged motion.
3. If any member having the floor should fail to adhere to the point under discussion or should become unnecessarily lengthy in their remarks, the chair shall call attention to those faults and insist on pointedness and brevity.
4. If any member has spoken twice on a pending issue, others who have not yet spoken twice shall ordinarily be given priority by the chair.
5. The task of defending the recommendation of a committee during its debate shall rest primarily upon the chairperson and secretary of the committee. These shall have precedence over every other speaker and shall not be limited as to the number or length of their speeches.
6. When the chair judges that a motion has been sufficiently debated, the chair may propose cessation of debate. If a majority of Classis sustains this proposal, discussions shall cease and a vote taken.
7. Any member of Classis, when they deem a matter to have been sufficiently debated, may move to close the discussion by calling for the question. Should the majority of Classis sustain this motion, debate shall cease and the question put to a vote. This motion to cease debate and terminate discussion, shall not be acceptable when a motion to table, to commit, to re-commit, to postpone definitely or indefinitely, is before Classis.

H. Voting

1. Voice: the chair shall call upon those voting affirmatively to say "Yes"; those voting against the motion to say "No."
2. Raising right hand: if the chairperson cannot determine the outcome of a voice vote, or if a delegate questions the chair's judgment as to the outcome of such a voice vote, the chair shall ask the delegates to vote by raising their right hand, thus indicating their vote.
3. Roll call: voting shall be done by this method only when Classis so decides by majority vote. This requires recording the names and votes in the minutes.
4. Ballot: Classis may decide by majority vote to use the ballot in important matters. The following matters must always be voted on by ballot:

2. A member of Classis may ask to have their negative vote recorded, provided they make their request immediately after the vote in question is taken.

J. Decorum and Discipline

1. It shall be the task of the chair to call for Christian conduct on the part of all the delegates during discussion and debate. Patience, courtesy, and self-control shall be the rule at all times.
2. In case of a breach of conduct on the part of any delegate, the chair may call upon the delegate in question to be silent and to be seated, and may refuse to recognize the delegate in question during the subsequent debate on the issue.
